Every time The Idler opens his mouth and says something people make remarks to the reporter. One man wants The Idler to get Mayor Langford's goats to eat the young mulberry and other bushes on the fence side of the pavements so that hens can not make nests in them and lay eggs there. Another man wants him to take a hand in the brick discussion. Still another wants him to pitch into conditions and things in general on general principles. All of which shows that many people like controversy and agitation.

LEFT BIG ESTATE.

Dr. John I. Schumpert, Who Died in Louisiana, Left Bulk of His Property to Relatives.

Dr. John I. Schumpert, a son of the late Jas. K. Schumpert, of this county, and a brother of the late Col. O. L. Schumpert and of Mrs. Os Wells, died at his home at Shreveport, Louisiana, about two weeks ago.

He was the oldest son of Mr. Jas. K. Schumpert and moved to Alabama many years ago. He was a successful physician as well as a good business man, and accumulated large property. His wife died some years ago and his only son, a very promising young physician, died three years ago.

Dr. Schumpert leaves an estate which it is understood is valued at about $137,000. In addition to two special bequests of $10,000 each, he leaves the balance of his estate to his heirs at law to be divided as the law directs. These heirs are Mrs. Os Wells, a sister, who lives in Newberry; Mr. Fred A. Schumpert, a brother who lives in Florida; Mrs. J. V. Cassidy, a sister who lives in Alabama; the heirs of Col. O. L. Schumpert, a brother; and the heirs of Mrs. Kingsmore, a sister, both of whom are dead.

HELD IN OKLAHOMA.

Man Supposed to be Wanted for Killing in Chester.

Chester, May 21.—W. E. Perry, who it is alleged, killed Langdon L. Booser at the Wylie cotton mills in Chester, March, 1905, and for whom a vigilant search has been made, is a captive at McAlester, Okla., it is believed. J. B. Gardner, a former resident of this city, who knew Perry well while he lived here, had a man arrested in the foregoing place several days ago. Mr. Gardner's wife, who had seen the alleged murderer frequently at the Wylie mill, is positive that the man under arrest as McAlester is the man wanted. Also Mr. Gardner, in his letter, stated that the suspect tallies with Perry as to the various scars on his body. Photographs have been received from Oklahoma and every effort is being made by Sheriff Colvin to have the photographs carefully examined by persons here that were acquainted with Perry.

Hen Lays in City Street.

Other cities are laying claims to big events and achievements, claiming great things and proclaiming themselves great on account thereof, but while Newberry is not in the class with Atlanta and can not raise as much hambone to bite off the end, nevertheless she can boast of a chicken hen that made her nest on a sidewalk in the city and laid eggs therein, not a stone's throw from the temple of justice where the mayor and the recorder and the chief of police daily discuss matters of importance.

The nest was in the neighborhood of Hill & Sligh's store and was discovered by Mr. Bob Sligh and Mr. Will Cromer. Witness to same, Mr. Neely Buzhardt. In order to save the hen from future embarrassment and trouble the said Sligh and Cromer did deliberately and knowingly liberate the said eggs from the afore-said nest and break up the arrangement entered into between the hen of the first part and the unwritten law to have the freedom of the city in the pursuit of her happiness in trying to raise a brood in her own way and time. The nest was on the inner edge of the sidewalk in a clump of young mulberry bushes, and if the hen's plans had not been thwarted by the two citizens mentioned the old hen would probably have succeeded in her designs upon the law and order of the town.

The finders turned the eggs over to Mr. John Robertson thinking they were his property, but he didn't recognize them and is deliberating the problem as to ownership, trying to reach a conclusion that will enable him to keep the eggs while they are fresh.

FINE COUNCIL INSTITUTED.

Stone Council, No. 28, of Charleston, Organized by Mr. Otto Klettner, Assisted by Ladies.

Great Representative Otto Klettner, of the Improved Order of Red Men, has returned to Newberry after instituting a Pocahontas council, the ladies' degree of the order, in Charleston.

The great council of Red Men of the United States meets in Charleston in September of this year, and the need for an active council of the Pocahontas degree was felt in Charleston, especially in view of the approaching meeting of the great council of the United States. Great Representative Klettner, who is known as the father of the Pocahontas degree in South Carolina, went to Charleston for the purpose of instituting this council, and he had the earnest assistance of the Great Pocahontas, Mrs. L. D. Allen, and the great chief of records, Mrs. H. B. Swett, both of Rock Hill. The membership was secured in forty-eight hours. It is large and active, being composed of ladies, with the exception of about six members. Great Representative Klettner is much gratified in the organization of this fine council in Charleston. The institution took place in the Irish Volunteers hall. The council is Stone council, No. 28, named in honor of Past Sachem G. H. Stone, of Charleston, who has been faithful and zealous in his work for the Order.

Great Representative Klettner has probably done more for the Red Men's organization in South Carolina than any other one man in it, and he has been equally earnest in his work for the Pocahontas degree.

Birthday Party.

Wednesday evening from 4.30 to 6.30 Little Miss Edna Sanders entertained a number of her little friends at her home in Nance street.

Miss Rose Harris, with the assistance of Misses Frances Crooks and Ola Hutchison, charmingly, entertained the little tots.

At 5.30 the little ones were ushered into the dining room, where a tempting ice course was served. Afterwards the birthday cake was cut. Little Miss Sanders cut the dime, little Miss Perry the nickel, and Master Roland Hutchison the button.

Many were the gifts Edna received from her little school mates and friends, which were appreciated more than words can tell.

Among the guests were: Edith Wilson, Louise Perry, Mildred Perry, Margaret Burns, Bessie Darby, Ella Bowman, Elizabeth McFall, Elizabeth White, Tommy Welling, Mary McClure, Travis and Ernestine Melton, Azilee and Estelle Whittaker, Marie and Ruth Long, Essie Robertson, Margaret Caughman, Otto Gregory, Otis Whittaker, Lawrence Spearman, Howard Dean, Raife Potter, Hearndon Sample, Theoren Darby, James Burns and Roland Hutchison.

The little ones left at 6.30, wishing Edna many more happy birthdays and pleasant thoughts to be stamped on their memory which is to them as "welcome as the flowers in May."

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edw. Fulenwider, Pastor). The following program of divine services has been arranged for the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

11 a. m.—The regular morning service. The pastor will preach the fourth in the series of special sermons on the general theme: "Great Fortunes for Everybody." The subject of the sermon will be: "The Great Fortune of Human Life." Text Job 2:6: "But save his life."

This is a very timely and important subject, one that needs the careful and serious consideration of the men of today. There is no doubt but that there is a careless and wanton destruction of human life today. In the great greed for gain human beings are sacrificed like so many brutes. You can scarcely pick up a newspaper without finding large headlines telling of the destruction of life.

The Bible lays a great deal of stress on the sacredness, value, and importance of human life.

Why human life is such a great fortune, and some timely lessons on how we should regard it, and use it will be presented in the sermon.

5 p. m.—Sunday school meets. Please note the change in the hour from 4 p. m. to 5 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to all the services.

Universalist Services.

There will be preaching at Clayton Memorial church Sunday, May 26, by Rev. Geo. S. Delano at 4 p. m. There will also be a meeting of the Young People's Christian Union at 3 p. m.

SOUTHERN PASSENGER WRECKED.

Train No. 16 Suffered Bad Accident Below Greenville Wednesday Afternoon—Several Injured.

Southern passenger train No. 16, east-bound, from Greenville to Columbia, due to pass Newberry at 9.05 p. m., was wrecked seven miles below Greenville on Wednesday afternoon. Five passengers in the colored coach were injured. That there were no fatalities seems almost miraculous, when the extent of the wreck is considered.

The baggage car and coach for negroes turned turtle and went down an embankment and the track was badly torn up for 500 feet.

The injured are: Mollie White, Anderson; Ethel Robinson, Anderson; Annie Harper, Jersey City, N. J.; Lelle Owens, Williamston, and John I. Davis, Griffin, Ga.

The train was running along at 30 miles an hour when the front trucks of the tender left the track. In the twinkling of an eye almost the baggage car and the coach for colored people had left the rails. The connection between the tender and the baggage car was broken. The baggage car and the colored coach were turned over and fell on their side down a ten-foot embankment. The front end of the white coach was jerked from the track, but the connection between it and the negro coach was broken before any serious damage was done. The trucks of the white coach, however, left the rails. The Pullman sleeper, the fourth and last car was derailed at the front only. The tender was also derailed, leaving only the engine and the rear trucks of the Pullman car on the rails.

The escape of the mail clerk, the baggagemaster and the ten or twelve negro passengers from death is considered miraculous. The train was in charge of Capt. John W. Nix, of Greenville.

Southern passenger No. 17, bound from Columbia to Greenville, went up as far as the wreck on Wednesday evening, returning to Columbia as No. 16, passing Newberry about 1 o'clock Thursday morning. Traffic on the Southern was badly delayed on Thursday, No. 17, bound for Columbia, being several hours late.
